The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-12, 15-27, 31-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, the last paragraph recites "the first and second cantilever arms" however the second cantilever arm lacks positive antecedent basis since the claim only has defined at least one first cantilever arm. Further "the first cantilever arm" on line 9, should be "the at least one first cantilever arm".

With regard to claims 31-34, these claims appear to be indefinite in that the magnetic fields are not actually being "injected" into the body. The magnetic field that is produced by a magnet would be applied to or penetrate into the body if the magnetic device is placed next to the body or even if it is placed within the body, but the "magnetic fields" can not be "injected". Further with respect to claim 33, the claim is indefinite in that it is unclear what the limitations of "cosmetic treatment" are.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 3735

Claims 31-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Markoll (6,447,440).

Markoll discloses a device and method for applying magnetic fields to a living body to treat tinnitus and TMJ arthrosis.

Claim 33 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Markoll (5,669,868).

Markoll teaches using magnetic fields to treat wrinkled skin, which is considered to be a “cosmetic treatment”.

Claims 1-12, 15-27 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
